Dr. Lemon and Miss Davail Married at Metropolitan Church; Mr. Free. man and Miss King at St. Andrew's -Several Other Suptial Events,

The Metropolican M. E. Church, are littleasily described with paim foliage, and that with an assemblage made up chiefly ight for the westering of Miss Juliet Mauc ughter of Mr. Andrew B. Du uall, Attorney for the District, and Dr. Hanson T. A. Lemon. Escorted by her ather, the bride passed up the side, pre-used by her train of ushers and maids She were, with her gracefully pretty wed-ding robes of white creps and duchess lace, a table vell, held in place with orange blocsom sprays. Her flowers were white roses and tilles of the valley, arranged in a shower bouquet. Her at-tendant must of honor was Miss Louise Duvail, whose gown was of pink crepe de chine, that matched in color the chrys-anthemams that formed her bouquet. The ord, N. J.; Miss Brown, of Ruther-ord, N. J.; Miss Briggs, of Srooklyn, ourin of the bride, and Miss Clara Lutz, If this city. They were attired alike in white point despirit, and carried banches if white chrysanthemanas. Mr. Harry M. emon attended his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Williams F. Lemon, Mr. Andrew B. Duvall, jr., Dr. W. Ashby Frankland, Dr. Edward D. Perkins, Mr. Divall B. Brown and Mr. T. Lloyd White-key. Dr. Lemon, the groom's father, offi-ciated, assisted by Rev. Dr. Bristol, recfor of the church.

Later, Dr. and Mrs. Lemon left for a moneymon trip northward, without specifying the exact date of their return.

Another beautiful wedding occurred last ght in St. Andrew's Church. The bride as Miss Annietta Landon King, daughter Henry Warren Freeman, of Chicago, was the groom. Rev. Dr. Perry officiated. The bride was attended by a maid o honor, Aliss Mabel Helden King two Bridesmalds, Miss Adelaide Shormeyer, of New Mexico, and Miss Extelle Fleming, of West Virginia, and two attendant marons, Mrs. Whitney Lyon, of New York, and Mrs. Albert Coombs Thorn, a sister of the bride. Major N. L. King, of Santa te, New Michele Mr. Charles J. Summer, Mr. Albert Coombs Thorn, Dr. Buntlog, of Johns Hopkins University; Mr. F. M. von Dachenhausen, and Mr. James H. Kelley. The bride wors white duchess satin and a vell crowned with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white roses. The maid of honor was attited in white crope. The bridesmand's gowns were of yellow crepe de chine and, like the maid of honor, they carried bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums. The matrons of honor were in white crepe and their honores were formed entirely of golden yellow chrysanthemums. A full choral service was rendered by the vested zhoir.

Mr. Freeman is a promising young lawyer of Chicago, and a graduate of Harvarl. After a wedding trip and a short stay in Chicago, their future home. Mr. Freeman will return here to remain during the session of Congress. They will be at home after December 15 at 135 Yale Street, the home of Professor and Mrs. King. hers were Mr. Charles J. Sumner, Mr.

Mrs. Teunis S. Hamlin, 1305 Connecticut Avenue, will be at home this afternoon from I to 5 o'clock to give the friends of from a to a chock to give the Friends of Dr. Mary Pierson Eddy, medical mission-ary of the Women's Presbyterial Society of Washington, an opportunity of bidding her good-bye before slie returns to her work in Sytia.

Miss Mabel Alberta Donnelly, daughter f Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Donnelly, and Mr. Edward Everett Jones were married at noon yesterday at Hamiline Church, Miss Dora Jones and Mr. Harry C. Jones stood up with the couple, and Messra J. M. A. Watsen, Fred Donnelly, Douglas Simms and Jesse Nicholson were the unders.

Miss Elizabeth E. Clements and Mr. rthur B. Bryan were married Tuesday vening at St. Aloysius Church. The norning on the steamer Pentz.

One of those remarkable people who know everythist, has proclaimed to the world that Mr. Lehr has branched into a ew field of action, and constituted him-elf sole purchaser and designer of his pretty wife's gowns. Mrs. Lehr, herself, is noted for her taste in devising gowns, out compared to her husband, she is—well, imply nowhere. While abroad on their Lehr achieved a wardrobe of splendid ef-to be the sensation of the season here. The design for each is credited to her detoted husband. One is called "the mother of pearl" dress. It is a superb white tulle, made over with white chiffon and white satin, cut extremely decollete. the tulle and chiffon are embroidered urious dealgns of mother of pearl sepulps in irregular shape. The contrast f the two whites is strikingly beautiful. The iridescent gleam of the pearl is especially so under electric lights. The shell is used unsparingly. It twists and turns over the gown, and is kept from looking too heavy at the foot by the innumerable frills and swish that form the balayouse Worth unhesitatingly stated after this gown was finished that mother of pearl sequins would take the piace of jet and metal ones, and that mother of pearl ornaments would become the fashion and that these bits of iridescent shells would be in great demand for the regal gowns be in great defining for the regal gowns this season.

The coral gown is also of white, soft, exquisite net, with great branches of coral worked on the foundation in forks and circular groups. The blaze of red against the white is splendid. Coral has to be worked with in certain stiff designs, for it lends itself to nothing simous. And this idea has been carried out with great effect on the gown. Mrs. Lehr will probably wear crimson sain slippers and red silk stockings with it, using coral and diamonds as jewoiry.

At St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral on Tues day night Miss Hattle W. Dalton and Mr. Hurry C. Cragg were married in the presence of a large gathering of friends. The bride entered the church with her fither, preceded by Miss Lyda Dulton, her sister, who was maid of honor. The groom and Mr. Claud Livingston, who was best man, met them at the chancel and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Levering Devries, the rector of the Pro-Cathedral. After the ceremony the Pro-Cathedrul. After the ceremony the couple held a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dalton, 506 B Street southeast. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, trimed with rose point lace, while the maid of honor were a dress of light blue crepe over taffela and point rose ince. The ushers were Theodore Dalton, A. H. Gaddis, George Bebbard, and Mr. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Cragg will spend two weeks at Niogara and Boffato and will return after a trip through Canada. They will be at home after November 15 at 829 B Street southeast.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Louise Plant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Piant, jr., 10 Mr. Richard Hyland Cox. of Baltimore, will take place Wednesday evening, November 6, at 7:20 o'clock, at he Church of the Ascension.

A wedding of musical interest to occur last night was that of Miss Anna Belle Carpenter and Mr. Charles H. Henney. Miss Carpenter is the contraits soloist at Margaret's Church, recently going here from Foundry, where she had been or three years. Mr. Henney is a skillful rformer on the cuphonium. Only relais a ware present at the ceremony. Rev. scorps Marydwell, of Wangh Church, efficied, and Mr. W. S. Carpenter, of New ork, gate the bride away. The maids a attendance were Miss Katherine Johnson and Miss Bertha lett. Mr. Boland R. Koderick, the barfrone, acted as best man, and Dr. Hischoff played the wedding matrell. After the 7 oclock ceremony a coption followed, from 8 to 18.

Muss Mubel Mercedes Burrows and Mr. William Carible Barr were married at lence of the acide's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bucrows, 739 N Street. Owing to a recent death in the bride's family the Mr. Kinder, of the Congress Street Meth Mr. Kinder, of the Congress Street Meth-odist Church, officiated, and the only at-tendant was little Marguret Reimburg, who were a white freek and carried bridal flowers. The wealling goven was of white Louisine silk. In the hair of the attrac-tive young bride was fastened a white rose and similar blossoms formed her bridal beaquet. Upon their return from a trip to the greem's home in Himos Mr. and Mrs. isarr will reside with the lat-ter's parents on N Street.

The "Whitehall Review" says it has good reason for believing that the Duke and Duchess of Mariborough will be the next occupants of Dublin Castle, Ireland, where the duke will act as Viceroy. Lord and Lady Dudley are also mentioned, but as Lord Dudley has never shown any ounters is very quiet and retiring, there seems little likeliheod of their accepting the jost even if it were effered. It has always been a grief to the Duke of Mariborough that Mariborough House passed beyond the reach of Elenheim, and it is said by some that it is wing to the hope of the duke and duchess that they may be in a position to buy back Mariborough House from the State that the operations at the site of their new house have been so long discontinued. Now that all the relatives of the late Queen have been provided with London pulners, there are some who think it is quite feesible for the King to see his way to gratify the desire of their Graces of Mariborough and mart with the town residence he has so long occupied. eems little likeliheed of their accepting CLYDE FITCH'S LATEST HIT. "The Climbers" Proving a Success With Local Theatregoers.

Local theatregoers are this week en oying what is without question the beframatic offering that has come to Wash-ington this season, or, as a matter of fact, for a good long time, and as "The Climbers" is played by Amelia Bingham and her admirable stock company capable histrionism has never been better exdoited on a local stage. In this Clyde Flich piece the humor and tragedy of the fortunes of the Hunter family are so splendidly presented and the satire of the doings of the "smart set" of Gotham's population is so keen that the play deserves to rank as the very best product that Mr. Fitch has turned out since his Beau Brummel."

Miss Bingham's company is noteworthy for its general excellence. There is not a role, no matter how small, that is not in the hands of a capable player, while the work of the star herself is decidedly commendable. Washingtonians rarely have the chance to witness such an excellent performance as is this week being given at the National Theatre by Miss Hingham, Frank Worthington, Robert Edeson, James Carew, Ferdinand Gottschalk, Madge Carr Cook, Marlan Gardiner, Blou Fernandez, Ethel Winthrop, Minnie Dupree, and the other members of the Bingham company. Miss Bingham's company is noteworthy

PLANS FOR THE MEETING.

A. R. to Be Held November 26. A well-attended meeting of the regents House, with the State Regent of the District. Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, in the purpose of formulating plans for the State Conference of the District, to be held in this city Tuesday, November 20.

There was considerable discussion in regard to the selection of the hall in which to hold the conference. At a previous insesting Confederate Veterans. Hall was selected, but this is not satisfactory to some of the members of the organization. The State Regent appointed a committee to select another hall, and to report results at the next meeting. trict, Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, in the evening at St. Aloysius Church. The bride was attended by her seter, Miss regard to the selection of the ball in Namnie Clements, and by Miss Eva Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are well-known young residents of the Bryan's Hall was selected, but this is not satisfactory to some of the members of the Maryland, and have a host of friends in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan a turned to their home in Maryland yesterday and to report results at the next meeting

Married in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.-W. B. Johns of the specification department of the Government Printing Office, Washington D. C., and Miss Nettie L. Pugh, of the same city, were married this evening at the home of the bride's aunt in this city. They start tomorrow on the steamer Hudson for Savannah, Quitman, and Thomasville, Ga., and other places in the South.

The Colonibin-"The Christian." At the Columbia Theatre next Monday vening Liebler & Co. will make a special production of Hall Caino's famous play.
The Christian," with a star cast, including Edward J. Morgan, in his original Haracter of John Storm, and Elsie Lestie on Glory Quayle, the part made famous by Viola Allen. The present production is said to be fully equal to the original presentation.

The low scale of prices made possible by Luckett & Dwyer, who purchased 'The Christian' outright for next week, has met with popular approval by the public. The sale of sexts, which opens this morning, bids fair to be the largest of the season. Several hundred orders by mail and telephone have been received by the management, many being accompanied by letters congratulating them on the low prices for this engagement of "The Christian."

The National-"Lady Runtworth's Experiment."

Manager Rapley announces week at the National Daniel Frohman's stock company, from Daly's Theatre, New York, including Hilda Spong and Arthur stock company, from bally's Theatre, New York, including Hilda Spong and Arthur Forest, Jameson Lee Finder, Grant Stewart, William F. Ower, William Courtenay, Albert S. Howson, Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, Ecatrice Morgan, and Nevads Hefron. The play will be a novelty here. R. C. Carton's "Lady Huntworth's Experiment," an original comedy in three acts.

Like Mr. Carton's other efforts, "Lady Huntworth's Experiment" is strong in bits of character, is brightly written, and its composite quality of good sense, good feeling and mirth comments it to cordinifavor. Lady Huntworth, the heroine, is a good woman, unhappilly married, in order to escape from her drunken husband, she allows him to obtain a divorce. Then, being poer, she takes service as a cook in the family of a clergyman. That is "the experiment." The comedy exhibits a series of resultant occurrences. The butler falls in love with her and proposes marriage. So does the clergyman. So ultimately does Captain Dorvaston, one of the chergyman's friends and guests. The ex-husband, Lord Hantworth, hearing that his former wire has inherited money, and being himself ruined, seeks her in her refuge and tries to renew their wedded association. But by this time she has other suitors.

The sent sale for the engagement will open today, and promises to be very large.

Governor."

The Bellows stock company appears to have settled down to a prosperous season at the Lafayette. The houses during the A distinct novelty has been anne for the third week, when Capt. R. Mar-shall's "Fils Excellency the Governor" shall's "His Excellency the Governor' will be presented for the first time in Washington. When the piece was produced in New York three seasons ago it ran for several months at a prominent Broadway theatre. When taken on a tour, however, the bookings did not include Washington, so that its presentation by the Bellows organization on Monday night next will be something in the light of a premier production.

In "His Excellency the Governor" Miss Lawrence will have the role of Stella De Gex, an operatic singer, which should afford her excellent opportunities for comedy work. The play itself is described as a farcical romance, and is laid upon an impeding light of the control of the light of the control of the light of the control of the latter of the Lafayette patrons and standing room was again at a premium yesterday afternoon.

That the return of a stock company is iways a matter of local pride is again proved by the active demand for seats for the reappearance of Otis Harian and the members of Chase's Musical Comedy A well-attended meeting of the regents and representatives of the tweive District chapters of the Society of the Daughters of the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held hat night in the red parior of the Ebbitt House, with the State Regent of the District, Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, in the public as a star. She successfully applied as a star star when the successfully applied as a star star.

The leading artists of the country have privately expressed to me their delight in the instruments (both Grands and Uprights) furnished for their private use, and it is the unanimous verdict that for concert work, as well as for accompanying the voice in singing, the Weber Plane is unequaled. With regards and best wishes for your continued prosperity,
